CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

Christian Endeavor was led by Miss Zelma Brown, of the Vocational Department, Sunday night. The topic, "Lessons from Favorite Parables," was ably discussed and much benefit was derived from it. A good attendance, for the summer, was there. Next Sunday night, at 6:15, in the Pavilion behind the Library, R. T. Miller will lead with a discussion of "Lessons From Favorite Psalms." Everybody welcome.

True Friends Beyond Price.

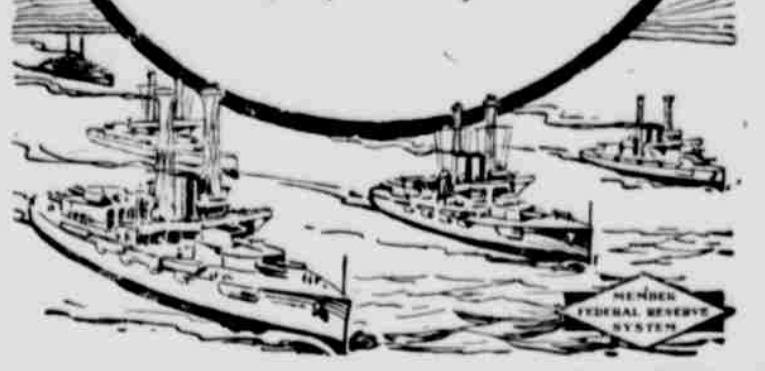

The most blessed reality in human life is a friend who understands and can companion your heart. Don't allow yourself to wear your spirit out alone with anxiety or grief. "The friends thou hast, and their adoption tried, grapple them to thy soul with hoops of steel." A true friend will save your soul alive.

The problem of our country today is the organization of all its resources and efforts. The Federal Reserve System is the banking organization which is caring for the nation's financial needs. Support it by dealing with a member bank.

HART—OGG

Friends of Miss Kathleen Ogg and Lewis R. Hart, were somewhat surprised, last week, to learn of their plans for an early wedding. The happy event took place at the home of the bride's father, C. I. Ogg, on Jackson street, Friday afternoon, July 12, at five o'clock. Only a few of the close friends of the bride were present, aside from the immediate families. The Rev. Howard Hudson officiated in his pleasing manner and the ceremony was made most impressive.

The bride is one of Berea's most popular and talented young ladies and has been identified with many of the progressive activities of the young people of the town, notable among these being her work with the Berea Naval Service girls.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Hart of Jackson street. He has been a student in the College Department during the last year, and has made many friends in town.

The bride and groom together, with his parents and Miss Margaret Hart, left Tuesday morning for a trip by automobile to the former home of the Harts in northeastern Ohio.

REV. BROWN RETURNS, SICK

Dear President and Mrs. Frost: You will regret to learn that my husband, D. W. Brown, is very seriously ill. We have just arrived from Silver City, New Mexico, where we went in search of health for him, but we have brought him back to his child-hood home, to his brothers, here at London, Ky. Tuberculosis, of the bowels and throat are hastening the end. Our two little daughters are at our home, near Chicago, with our church people at Lake Forest, Ill. I know we have your sympathy and prayers in this sudden setting of a promising young life. Remember us to Edith especially, and to our friends whom you may meet.

Yours cordially,
(Mrs.) D. W. Brown

DECEASED

After weeks of suffering and pain, Mrs. Bessie Wyatt Frary was called to her Eternal Home last week, where all is peace and happiness, and pain is not known.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon in the Baptist Church by the pastor, the Rev. E. B. English, and burial followed Monday morning in the Berea Cemetery.

Her husband, who is in the Army, training in South Carolina, was unable to be present at the funeral.

Two sisters, Mrs. Frances Wyatt, and Mrs. Ida Sanboda, of Battle Creek, Mich., came for the funeral. To Mr. Ferrer and Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt and children, the sympathy of all is extended in their dark hour of bereavement.

MISS NASH'S CLASS LEAVES

Miss Dextra Nash left Saturday, for her home in Wilmore. She was accompanied by her class in Expression, which has been taking a summer course here. The class consisted of Misses Emily Morrison, Bernadine Johnson, Beulah Green and Harry Tate, all of Asbury College.

On account of there being no summer school at Asbury this summer, Miss Nash has conducted the course here.

METHODIST TENT MEETING

Good interest and large crowds characterize the revival meetings being held in the Gospel tent back of the Methodist Church.

Evangelist Sanford preaches every night at 8 o'clock and is assisted in the work by Mrs. Sanford, Mrs. Burke and the Rev. F. H. Larabee, the pastor of the Methodist Church.

There will be a union service in the tent on Sunday evening at 8:00, p.m. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend the meetings.

PICNIC IN HONOR OF FLOYD NEALY

Monday, the 15th, a huge picnic dinner was spread on "Christmas Ridge" in honor of Floyd Nealy, who departed Tuesday for the U. S. Army service. More than one hundred of Nealy's friends were present and all enjoyed the good time. The fact of Nealy's departure gave a tinge of sadness to the occasion, but Nealy expressed his determination of doing his part to win the war for Democracy.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

A number of Miss Dottie Ogg's most intimate friends surprised her last Thursday evening, by calling at her home and "showering" her with quite a collection of miscellaneous articles which they believed she would have use for in the near future.

EXTENSIONISTS HAPPY

The first group of extension workers returned home this week. They report a fine trip with interesting and profitable sessions held at various points in Alabama. A more detailed account of their work will appear in next week's issue. Be sure and read it.

CHURCH NOTICE

The service in the Pavilion will again be omitted that everybody may join with the Methodist friends in their revival meetings in the tent, back of the Methodist Church, next Sunday evening.

Committee.
